

Branch Status

The Barony of the Rhydderich Hael was established in 1979 by Morgan Elandris and consists of Erie and Niagara Counties in New York State.

The Canton Accord

The Canton of Beau Fleuve was established in the year 1980 as an autonomous entity within the Barony of the Rhydderich Hael. Thus it was established prior to the 1989 Corpora revisions of branch status, and is therefore free to remain autonomous. Due to the proximity of the Canton to the Barony proper, however, several reciprocal agreements between the Canton and the Barony have been effected over the years to benefit more fully the populace at large.

The Canton of Beau Fleuve, includes the zip codes:

14008, 14010, 14012, 14028, 14067, 14069, 14072, 14092, 14094, 14095, 14098, 14103, 14105, 14107, 14108, 14109, 14120, 14126, 14131, 14132, 14144, 14151, 14169, 14172, 14174, 14300, 14301, 14302, 14303, 14304, 14305

Established by Jenna MacPherson of Lion's Tower, Gillian Llywellyn of Ravenspur and Thomas of Bearwoods. Being a statement of traditional agreements between the Rhydderich Hael & its Cantons.

- I. It is agreed that the Baron and Baroness of the Rhydderich Hael have the right to hold court at any event within the geographical confines of the Barony, including the Cantons. It is further agreed that the Baron and Baroness will themselves or will send an appropriate representative to consult with the event autocrat as to the best location and time for the court to take place at the event. This only applies to locally sponsored events (i.e. not Kingdom events).
- II. It is agreed that Baronial events may take place at sites located within Canton territory, and vice versa. The procedure for this is as follows:
 - a. A gentle wishing to bid for an event must seek an appropriate facility for that event.
 - b. If the site desired is within the boundaries of one of the cantons (or within the barony proper for canton events) the proposed autocrat MUST consult with his/her seneschal and upon approval MUST contact the seneschal of the area in which the site is located. This is to be done BEFORE any contact with the site is made, no exceptions.
 - c. If both seneschals approve the site may be contacted.
 - d. After the site is contacted, an event bid may be presented at a Baronial or Canton (whichever applies to the autocrat) officers meeting. When and if the bid is accepted then the autocrat and the seneschal in whose territory the site is located should both sign any contracts.
 - e. This process does not change the sponsorship of the event, and the seneschal in whose territory the site is located need only be alerted in the case of our activities coming to the attention of the mundane authorities. That seneschal may however request that a member of their group be added to the autocrating team. The sponsoring group by this is required to provide for any monetary losses or payments for damages to keep the entire group's name in good standing.
- III. It is agreed that items and equipment belonging to either the Cantons or the Barony may be borrowed from each other. This can only happen with the proper request and notice given to the appropriate seneschal.
- IV. It is agreed that canton officers must be residents of that geographic area. Baronial officers however may live in any area within the larger limits of the Barony. A person may not hold a Barony and a Canton Great Office simultaneously.

- a. The seneschal decides the type of selection for any decision.

- e. Direct Greater Officer Polling is used when decisions must be made before a Baronial Business Meeting can be held. In this case the seneschal directly contacts all greater officers via any means available including email, online chat, phone call, text, or in-person discussion, explains the nature of the polling, and receives the officer's vote. The reason for and results of such a polling must be included in the next Baronial Business Meeting.

Seneschal Fiat may be used for decisions of a sensitive nature, where secrecy is required by the Kingdom or Society, or where an immediate decision must be made. Any decision made by fiat must be brought up at the next Baronial Business Meeting unless forbidden by Kingdom, Society, or the damaged party in a sensitive issue.

The Baronage must then inform the populace through the Newsletter, and other media available, of this desire.
- IV. If the Baronage does not indicate the desire to continue for a fourth year by above mentioned time, it will be assumed that no desire to continue for a fourth year exists and notification of an election will be held in the manner described in Section V.
- V. Once the sitting Baron/ess announces the desire to continue for a fourth year, the Seneschal will order mailing addresses (see section IV) and construct a ballot to be sent out to all eligible voters.
 - a. The ballot will be a simple Yes / No / Abstain construction.
 - b. The ballots will be sent out as soon as possible, preferably by the December Business Meeting and must be completed and returned to the Seneschal by January Barony Business meeting (Date and Time to be determined.) Ballots will be accepted up to 8:00 PM to allow for late arrivals.
 - c. The Seneschal, Knight Marshal and Pursuivant will open the ballots and tally them.
 - V.c.i. If the Knight Marshal and/or Pursuivant are not available, the Seneschal shall pick other members of the Baronial officers to assist in the tabulation. Three people are required.
 - d. A Vote of Confidence shall be a success if a simple majority of the returned ballots are for a continuation of the reign of the Baronage.
 - V.d.i. In order to avoid a second Vote of Confidence the Seneschal's ballot will only be opened and counted if there is a tie.

- VIII.g.i. The first part is the status vote, which will determine whether the Rhydderich Hael will remain a Barony, become a shire, become a province, or be dissolved.
 - VIII.g.ii. The second part will list the candidates. Next to each candidate will be a line where the voter may put a number ranking the candidates in order of preference (the highest number being the most preferred, lowest number the least preferred).
 - VIII.g.ii.1. For example: if there are three candidates on the list, the voter would put a 3 next to the person(s) they would most like to see elected, a 2 next to their next favorite candidate(s), and a 1 next to their least favorite candidate(s).

In the case of a complete tie the current tallies will be forwarded to the Crown for a decision.
 - m. The election committee will convene in private during the electoral business meeting to count votes. The committee will work as a group to judge any ballots that are confusing or incorrectly filled out and determine if said ballots are fit to be counted. A successful tally requires that each member of the election committee independently count and sum the numbers for each candidate and have identical results as the rest of the committee. Tie results will be processed as above and must likewise be decided upon unanimously by the committee. Upon determination of a winner, the election steward shall make the announcement at the meeting and on the baronial e-list.

- c. Under normal circumstances, expense authorizations will be conducted at the regularly scheduled Baronial meetings or practices. Requests for large expense authorization may be made at one business meeting, and decided on at the same or next business meeting as determined by the Seneschal.
